Autumn house renovation

time is at hand, and these few suggestions should merit your closest attention—the lines here deserve nothing else.

Lace Curtains.

At no time in the history of this store have we shown such lovely curtains at a popular price range.

We mean to say by this that you can secure here between $3.00 and $10.00 per pair styles that in previous seasons were confined strictly to curtains selling anywhere between $10.00 and $25.00 pair. For instance, in the Nottingham class we show you Brussels, Renaissance, Cluny and other high priced curtain effects. In addition to this advantage, you secure from us confined patterns—patterns only to be had here.

Real Renaissance, Real Brussels, Real Cluny and Real Arabian Curtains..... $4.50 to $25.00 pair.

Portieres.

What we have said of Lace Curtains applies with equal force to Portiere Curtains. One effect in particular, a Turkish pattern, shows strongly contrasted red and gold units of noticeable size sparsely scattered over a rich blue ground. A deep heavy fringe beneath borders that are very picturesque in color arrangement. These are..... $7.90 pair.

Rope and Tapestry Portieres at all prices $1.98 and $15.00. between.....

Our Couch Covers

customers tell us are the most beautiful they have ever seen, especially the Arabian and Turkish class..... $2.95 to $9.00 ea.

Silk and Satin Damasks, Tapestries, Art Denims and Cretonnes Drapery Silks and Silkalines, Fringes, Cords and Tassels—the lines are most complete.

SENATOR FORAKER TO-NIGHT.

The Senior Ohio Senator Will Address
a Great Republican Mass Meeting at Bellaire.

THE GREAT PREPARATIONS

Being Made Indicate That This Will be the Event of the Campaign in the Ohio Town.

The event of the campaign in Bellaire is the Senator Foraker meeting this evening. The senior Ohio senator is a great favorite on the river front, both in Ohio and West Virginia, and it is well assured that he will be greeted by a tremendous audience. The meeting will be preceded by a great street demonstration, in which clubs from Bellaire, Martin's Ferry, Bridgeport, Benwood, Wheeling and other neighboring towns will participate. Nearly all of the Wheeling Rough Rider companies, the Elkins Cadets, and the Republican Six Footers are going.

The Six Footers are called to meet at Republican headquarters on Sixteenth street, at 6:45, sharp, to attend the Foraker meeting.

The McKinley-Roosevelt marching club, of Bridgeport, turned out strong last evening and practiced drilling on Bank street. After the drill a short meeting was held in the Cleveland & Pittsburgh freight depot, and it was unanimously voted that the club would be on hand this evening at 7:30, to go to Bellaire, to take part in the Foraker meeting. Three open summer cars have been arranged for, to take the Bridgeport club to Bellaire, to leave Bridgeport at 7:30.

Martin's Ferry will go down with about eight car loads, accompanied by a brass band and drum corps, red fire, rockets, etc. The eight cars from Martin's Ferry will join the three from Bridgeport, and all of the eleven cars will go in a body to Bellaire, landing there at about 8 o'clock, at the public square, to be taken in charge by the Bellaire people and placed in the parade. All members are requested to be on hand and fall in for the ride to Bellaire not later than 7:30, as the train of cars will leave Bridgeport promptly at 7:30 p. m.

AT ROSBY'S ROCK

An Enthusiastic Meeting Was Held Last Night.

The Republicans of Rosby's Rock and the surrounding country gathered in large numbers last night, to hear the issues of the campaign eloquently and effectively expounded by E. M. Showalter, assistant United States district attorney for this state, T. J. Parsons and B. F. Melghen. The Rough Riders and the S. M. Steele clubs, of Moundsville, headed by a drum corps, came in two special cars and were enthusiastically received.

G. W. Berry called the meeting to order and introduced Hon. Frank Arnold as chairman of the meeting. He made a brief speech and introduced the speakers in neat and well-ordered speeches. The following vice presidents occupied seats on the stage: C. L. Allenden, M. D. Evans, Dr. L. S. Heunen, Thomas Blake, Alford Gaines, G. W. Miller and James Silverts.

There were fully 500 persons at the meeting and they manifested their enthusiasm by frequently cheering and applauding the speakers. Mr. Showalter made the principal address of the evening and he was listened to attentively throughout. He made a clear and convincing argument for the support of the Republican ticket and made many Republican votes in this section.

Freer at Benwood.

There will be a rally of Republicans at the corner of Sixth and Main streets to-morrow night to listen to an address by the Hon. Romeo H. Freer, than whom no more eloquent and forceful speaker has been heard in this section. Mr. Freer has a host of admirers in this section and there will no doubt be a rousing turn-out to-morrow night. A parade of the Republican clubs from Wheeling, Bellaire, Moundsville and Benwood will escort the speaker from Wheeling to Benwood and will traverse the following route through Benwood: Form at McMechen and Fourth streets promptly at 7:30 and then march down McMechen to Marshall, down Marshall to John's store, countermarch to Eighth and Water, up Water to Fourth, down Main to Eighth and countermarch to Ohio River depot. The following list of vice presidents has been appointed: Aug. Schad, Charles Sprouts, Joseph Becker, Paul Heibel, Robert Newton, Oscar Holderman, Sam J. Hunter, O. A. Lacy, John W. Johns, Henry Melzenthin, W. C. Burris, Henry Riddle, Charles Schad, Ed Vance, John Loy, John Pastorius.

Clay-Union Rough Riders. Company G, Clay-Union district Rough Riders, will meet this evening at 7:30, sharp, at their club room, for drill.

The ladies of the Third Presbyterian church will give a carpet social Monday evening, and carpets will be made for one of their mission schools. Refreshments will be served and a social time will be had.

The new board of trade might start off its assured brilliant career by taking steps toward having the street arches made a permanent thing. Then they could be lighted every evening, and would enhance the city's appearance greatly at night.

The banquet of the "Owls" at Fulton last night, was a highly enjoyable affair. The occasion was the biennial anniversary of the club, and the event was enjoyed to the utmost by those fortunate enough to be present. Speeches were made by some of the members and it was an occasion long to be remembered.
